

SecurColor.

Epson's color-on-demand printer for pharmacies.

Wait 'til you see what it can do.

Now pharmacies have a new, reliable way to print color-on-demand labels for unit doses, syringes and IV bags with Epson's SecurColor™ inkjet printer. Based on Epson's patented inkjet technology, SecurColor features print speeds up to 3.7"/sec at a clear 360 x 180 dpi, and the ability to print vibrant color on qualified permanent, waterproof media from 1.2" to 4.4" wide. Best of all, SecurColor is from Epson, known worldwide for its quality and reliability. To find out more, email info@digitrax.com.
